Kent Libbe--"The tapes should never have been made--let alone released. "

Sue Abbott--"No, I don't think he'll be impeached because if they get another guy in there it will be the same way. No one can solve all the problems. "

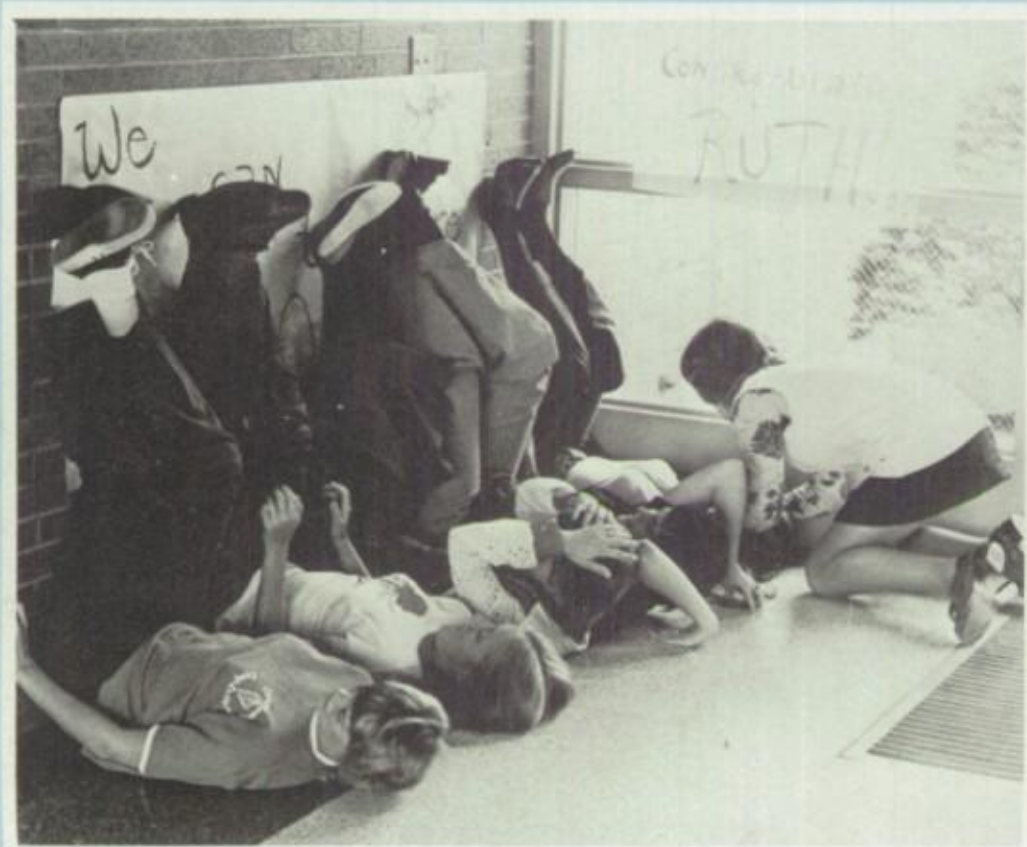

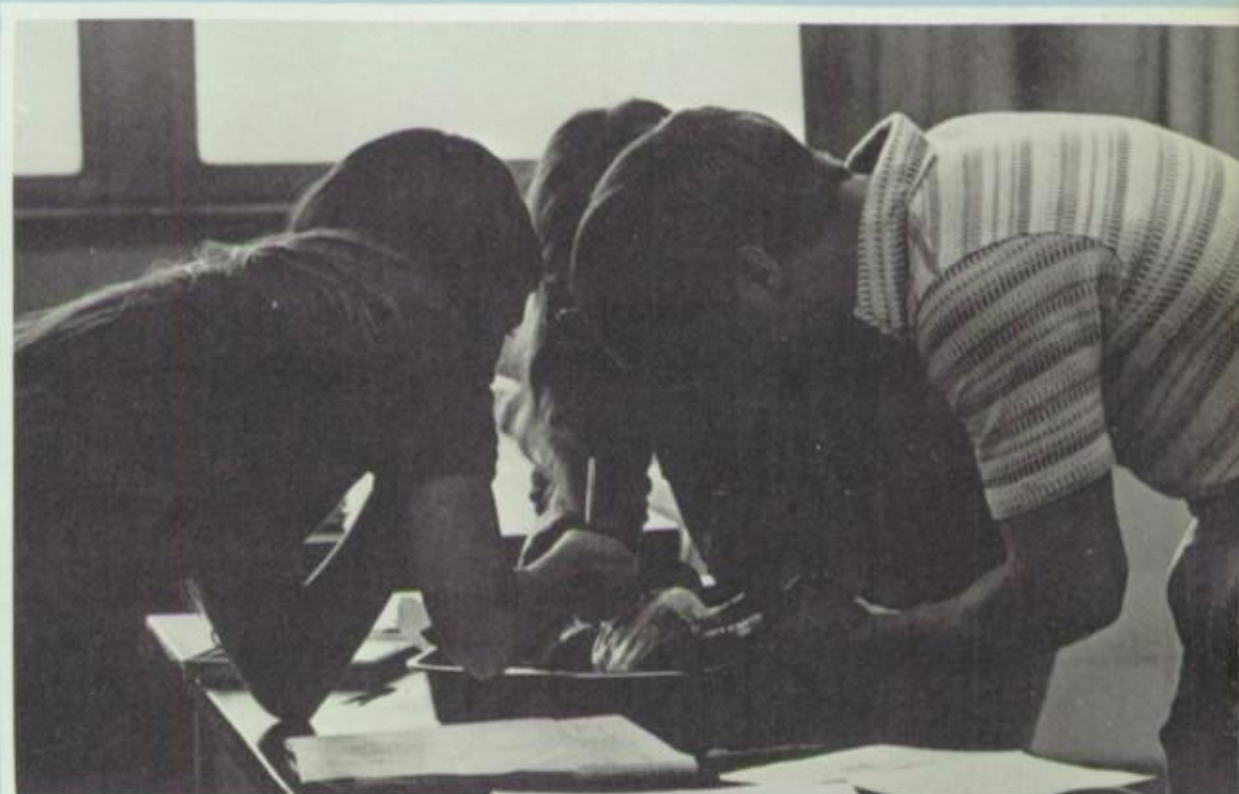

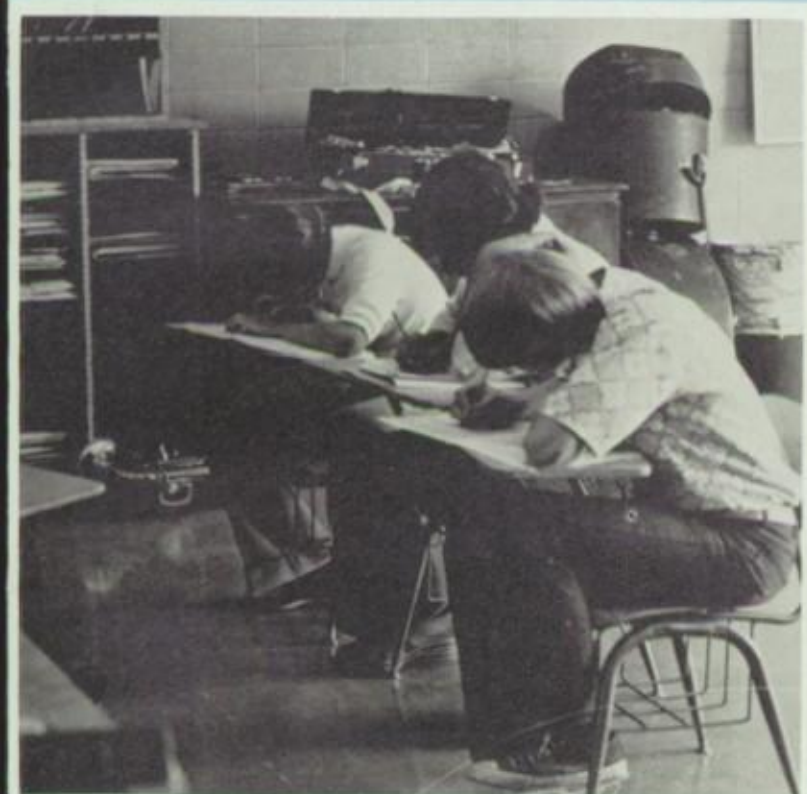

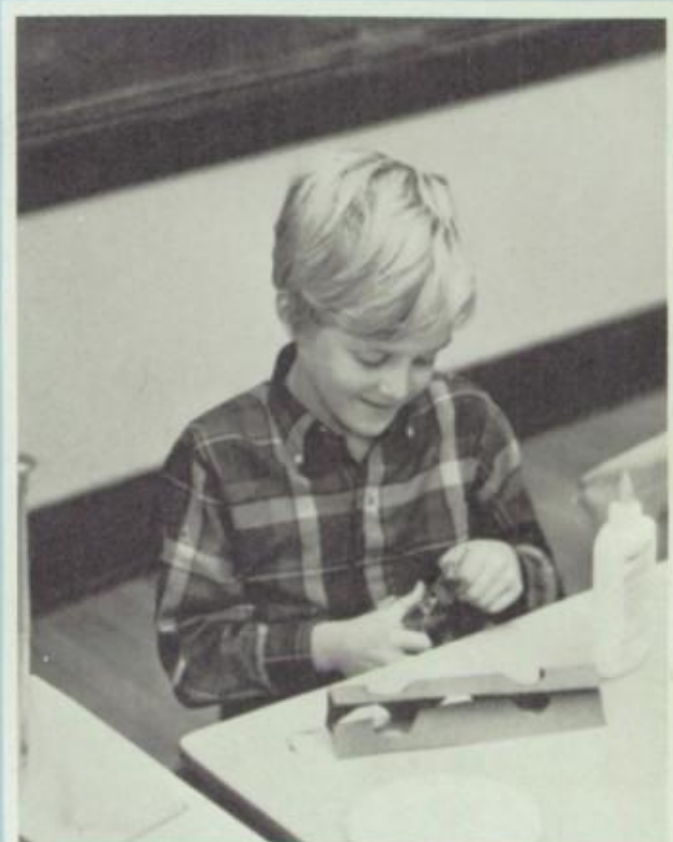

Jackie Hoelter--"The energy crisis is artificial and manmade started by the heads of the oil companies to profit themselves. "

Kelly Sigler--"I don't think the energy crisis will change anything except that it will be colder in school and they may cut extracurricular activities."

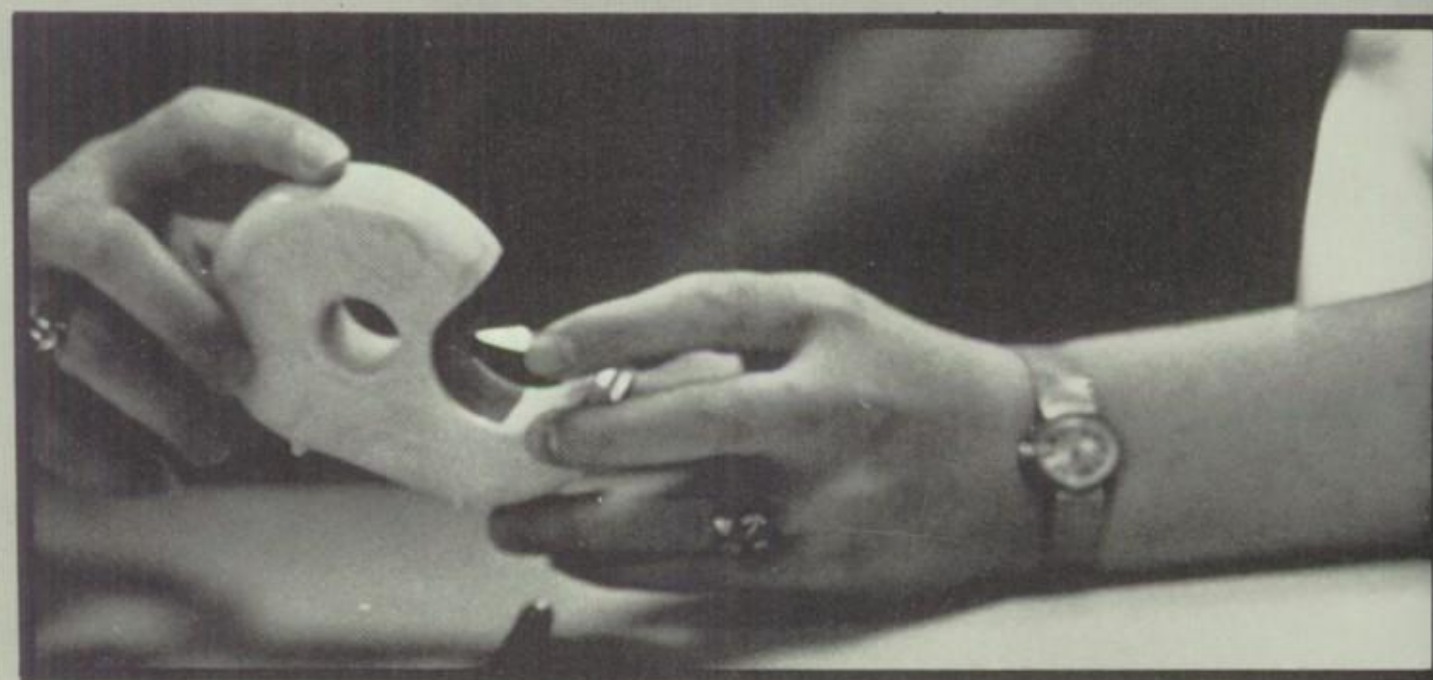

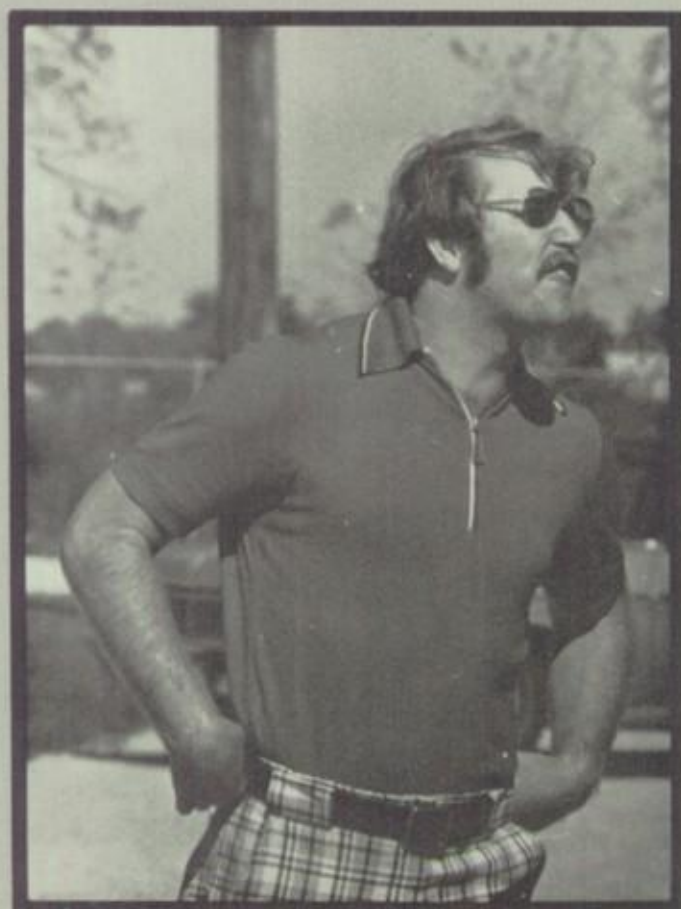

Karen Jacobs--"I think that there is a trend toward Nostalgia, 'cause after every war there is a trend back to conservatism, people want to forget their troubles."

Deb Morlock--"Minicourses are a change in the regular routine. I think that there is a good selection."

Mini courses are a change in the school routine this year. These courses are offered in the English and History Departments on a trial basis to see if the students enjoy the expansions in curriculum. In the English Department students can take almost anything from Shakespeare to Women in Literature, likewise in the History Department students are offered a variety ranging from The American Civil War and Reconstruction to Current Topics. The mini courses are either nine weeks or a semester in length and are a welcome change to the school routine, for they provide the students with an opportunity to schedule many courses that otherwise they would not be able to take advantage of.

This year the band has enlarged to 126 members. In order to acquire the large membership, the Marching Eagles included for the first time all of the freshman band. The band members practice many long hours to perfect the half-time shows and to achieve the unusual. For example, the band performed a hat and cane routine during one show.

This year Cross Country became more popular at E.H.S. Hard work and determination, under the coaching of Mr. Nigh (TOP RIGHT), led the "Harriers" to a 7-3-1 record. The team was composed of seven seniors (LEFT) and eleven underclassmen. (TOP LEFT) C.C. boys know it takes practice to obtain success. (CENTER RIGHT) Mike Freeman, Darrell Reno, and Rick Pace lead the way! (CENTER RIGHT) Scott Samson and Brian Predmore show 'em who's the best.

The Eagle's determination to win the SLL title never waned, although they were defeated several times. Belief in this goal gave the Eagles the drive and stamina to surpass many teams.

A FOOTBALL TEAM

There are many elements involved in the making of a successful football team. The coaches, cheerleaders, parents, students, and friends add support to the team's spirit. Throughout the season the fighting Eagles were welcomed onto the field (TOP) by the loyal fans and cheerleaders. However, the real spirit comes from the players themselves! A successful team is derived from their efforts, cooperation, and reliability on each other (RIGHT).

The 1973 Football Homecoming is now a memory for the queen and her court, as well as for the student body. Some of the week's activities included a "T" shirt day, the bonfire, and an outdoor pep session. As a climax to the excitement aroused by the bonfire and pep session, Becky Emans was chosen to reign as queen. Her escort for the ceremony was Kevin Oberdick, and she was crowned by last year's queen, Diane Aufdencamp. Her attendants and their escorts were as follows: Ruth Wohn, senior attendant, escorted by Kent Libbe; Wanda Baker, junior attendant, escorted by Jack Faykosh; Pam Ebka, sophomore attendant, escorted by John Cajka; with Darrell Reno serving as Diane's escort. To add to the success of the evening the Eagles came through with a 23-3 victory over the Lakota Raiders.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

1974 Homecoming Queen, Gail Pertner, Laurie Freeman, Sophomore Attendant, Mary Wilson, Senior Attendant, Deb Dauer, Junior Attendant.

The 1974 Basketball Homecoming held on January 18th was truly a highlight for both the queen and her court. Chosen to reign as queen over the evenings activities was senior Gail Pertner. Her court consisted of: Mary Wilson, senior attendant, escorted by Ron Petty; Deb Dauer, junior attendant, escorted by Dennis Weaver; and Laurie Freeman, sophomore attendant, escorted by Darrell Reno. Queen Gail was escorted by Dave Wozniak, and last year's Queen, Deb Woodruff was escorted by Holly Hollister. The student body really added to the success by showing school spirit, both during pep week and at the game. The highlight of pep week was 50's day, when the halls of E.H.S. were filled with bobby socks, long skirts, and slicked back hair! The pep session also aroused spirit with the help of three slightly different cheerleaders! Finally, after the victorious 79-55 game, many students attended the homecoming dance sponsored by the junior class.

who needs more power plants anyhow!

You do.

If you want to use the products you own today and will own tomorrow. Most are powered by electric energy.

If you want to work. Every job requires the use of electricity in some form.

If you want to live in a quality environment. Most pollution control equipment runs on electric power.

You need power plants . . . for all your wants.

I would sincerely like to thank all of the merchants whose support has helped to make this year's book possible. A very special thanks also goes to the members of the staff. Their time and cooperation was greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

Mary Skibson

Business Manager

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. This day is all that is good and fair. It is too dear, with its hopes and invitations, to waste a moment on yesterdays.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON

Through this book we have tried to preserve some of the better memories of yesterday. These memories should not be dwelled upon, but instead preserved as keepsakes. Rather, we are to face the world one day at a time, trying to better it in any way we can. I have enjoyed the privilege of being this year's editor, and the experiences it has brought, and wish next year's editor and her staff the best of luck.

Sincerely,

Marsha Meyer

THE PARK''

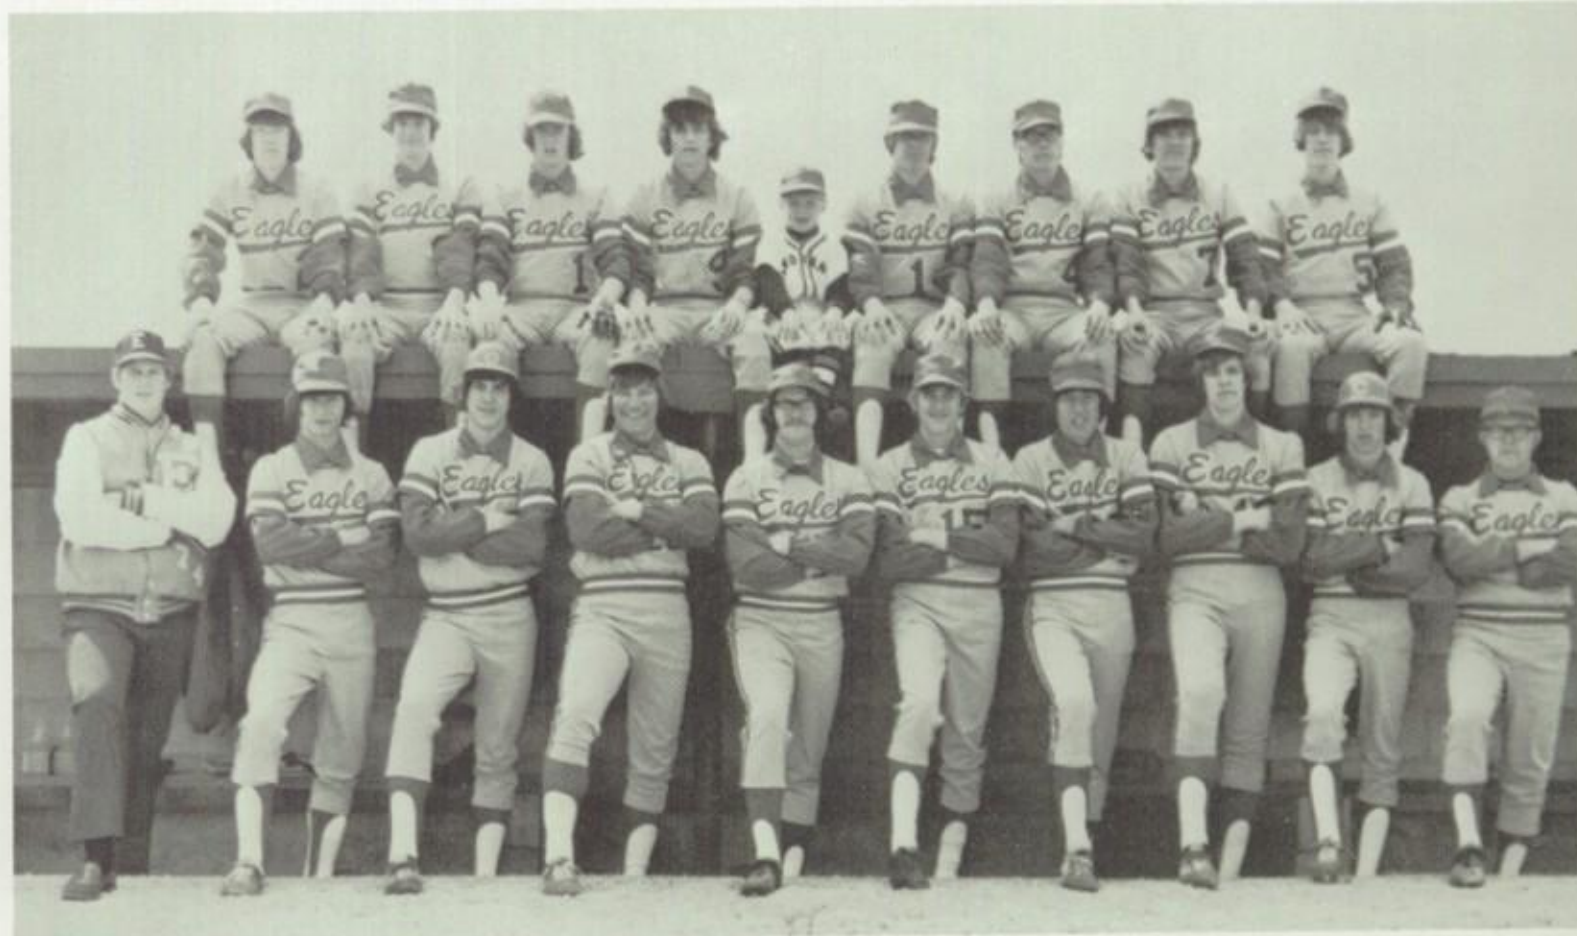

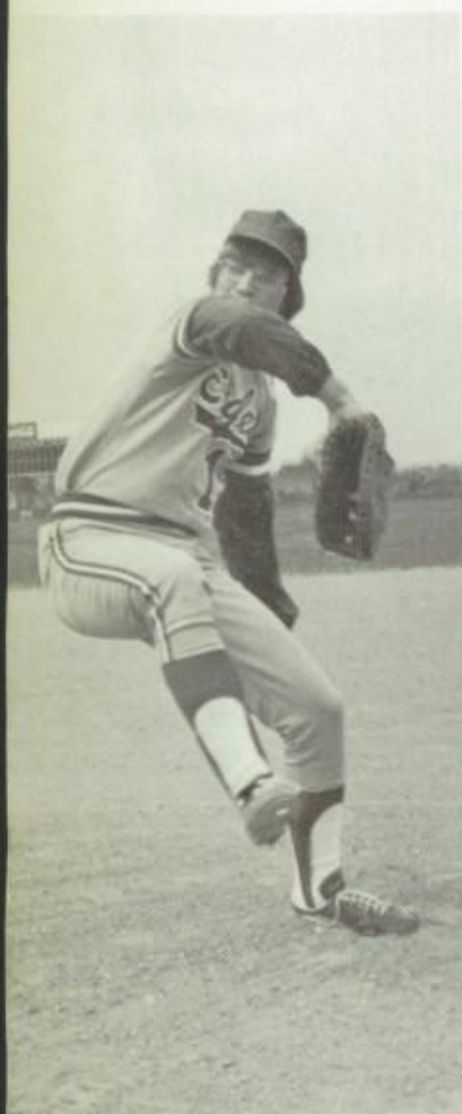

The Junior Class spent many long hours working to create a unique prom for the graduating Seniors. Overnight the Junior High cafeteria became the perfect setting for "Saturday in the Park". Many parents as well as students helped to make the evening a success.

The buffet dinner was decorated with checkered tablecloths and live flower arrangements. Jayne Dierker and Dan Frobose, met in the park to read the prophesy after the Juniors were read the will by Senior Tom Bowlus.

Later, the band, seated in the gazebo, provided music for an evening of dancing. The rock fountain, trellis, blooming trees, and park benches, created a beautiful scene.

Afterwards, many went to Varsity Lanes in Bowling Green for an after-prom of bowling, pool, ping-pong, or putt-putt. An early breakfast was served Sunday morning after an exciting and fun-filled night.

GRADUATION 1974

June 2, 1974 is a day to be remembered throughout the lives of 176 Eastwood High School graduates, for this is the day which marked the turning points of their lives. Many decisions will have to be made in the days to follow which will determine the course of their future. Furthering their education, pursuing a career, or continuing with a present job are just a few of the choices which they have.
